Answer the following Provide a detailed explanation of your primary business activity (exactly what your business or agency does and how you will use the vehicle and vessel records). Moore Forensics investigates traffic accidents, fires, and other insurance-related technical matters. CPS will be used to obtain vehicle information, such as gross weight, scale weight from trailers; if a license plate is known but not the VIN, CPS will be used to obtain the VIN. It may also be used to determine if a vehicle has a salvaged title.
Will you contact the owner for any purpose, provide the registration record information to an attorney or private investigator, or to any other persons or businesses? Use this space to describe how you will contact the owner or disclose the information or state that you will not disclose it and will not contact the owner. This is required information. The only time that an owner may potentially be contacted is if a vehicle is the subject of an accident investigation and it needs to be inspected or other information needs to be obtained, but was sold some time after the accident.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners— RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4) (a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the State seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. Contact cps@dol.wa.gov to request a sample notification letter.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties —RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

CPS RECORD FEES: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.

Submit the following documentation with your application:

- Washington State business – Attach a legible copy of your current business license
- Business outside Washington State – Attach a legible copy of one of the following:
 - Your current business license or
 - A letter signed by the owner or authorized representative indicating you are their agent. The letter must include your Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) or Federal Tax Identification Number (TIN)

This is required information. We will use information to verify ownership and either restore to owner or transfer ownership if the asset is part of an estate within our management. We will not disclose information except as necessary to protect and distribute such estates.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners — RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4) (a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the state seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. A sample notification letter is at the DOL website: <https://fortress.wa.gov/dol/ivipsprod/ContractForms.aspx>.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties — RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

IVIPS record fees: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.

Submit the following documentation with your application:

- Washington State business – Attach a legible copy of your current business license
- Business outside Washington State – Attach a legible copy of one of the following:

Subscriber Roster (Data brokers/resellers applying for CPS must complete and return this section)

Each data broker or reseller must:

- Maintain a legible Subscriber Roster and complete all fields
- Record all subscribers
- Document the specific permissible use qualification for each subscriber
- Retain Subscriber Roster and notification letters sent by subscribers for the term of the Contract and for three (3) years from the date of disclosure or termination of the contract, whichever occurs first.

Your contract and/ or CPS access may be terminated if you do not maintain a complete and legible Subscriber Roster.

In the Subscriber's permissible use box, describe the DPPA defined permissible purpose for access to personal information contained in the records. For example, "information is used in the processing of insurance claims investigations." A vague answer, such as, "check who owns the vehicle," is unacceptable.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/irb.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Subscriber Roster (Data brokers/resellers applying for IVIPS must complete and return this section)

Each data broker or reseller must:

- Maintain a legible Subscriber Roster and complete all fields
- Record all subscribers
- Document the specific permissible use qualification for each subscriber
- Retain Subscriber Roster and notification letters sent by subscribers for the term of the Contract and for three years from the date of disclosure or termination of the contract, whichever occurs first.

Your contract and/ or IVIPS access may be terminated if you do not maintain a complete and legible Subscriber Roster.

In the "Subscriber's permissible use" box, provide a specific description of why the subscriber needs access to personal information. For example, "Information is used in the processing of insurance claims investigations." A vague answer, such as, "Check who owns the vehicle," is unacceptable.

Answer the following

Provide a detailed explanation of your primary business activity (exactly what your business or agency does and how you will use the vehicle and vessel records).

Verifying and/or locating addresses of Defendants in cases

Will you contact the owner for any purpose, provide the registration record information to an attorney or private investigator, or to any other persons or businesses? Use this space to describe how you will contact the owner or disclose the information or state that you will not disclose it and will not contact the owner. This is required information.

We may serve a Defendant during the course of a case if necessary.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners— RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4) (a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the State seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. Contact cps@dol.wa.gov to request a sample notification letter.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties —RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

CPS RECORD FEES: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are Invoiced monthly.

Submit the following documentation with your application:

- Washington State business – Attach a legible copy of your current business license
- Business outside Washington State – Attach a legible copy of one of the following:
 - Your current business license or
 - A letter signed by the owner or authorized representative indicating you are their agent. The letter must include your Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) or Federal Tax Identification Number (TIN)
- Non-profit organization or corporation – Attach a legible copy of one of the following:
 - Your Articles of Incorporation, filed with the Secretary of State or
 - Your Tax Exempt Status, (501)(c)(3), from the Internal Revenue Service
- Attorney – Attach a legible copy of your current bar card, or proof of current/active bar status in your state.
- Private investigator – Attach a legible copy of your current private investigator license.

By signing or typing your name, you are certifying under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Subscriber Roster (Data brokers/resellers applying for CPS must complete and return this section)Each data broker or reseller must:

- Maintain a legible Subscriber Roster and complete all fields
- Record all subscribers
- Document the specific permissible use qualification for each subscriber
- Retain Subscriber Roster and notification letters sent by subscribers for the term of the Contract and for three (3) years from the date of disclosure or termination of the contract, whichever occurs first.

Your contract and/ or CPS access may be terminated if you do not maintain a complete and legible Subscriber Roster.

In the Subscriber's permissible use box, describe the DPPA defined permissible purpose for access to personal information contained in the records. For example, "information is used in the processing of insurance claims investigations." A vague answer, such as, "check who owns the vehicle," is unacceptable.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners— RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4) (a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the State seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. Contact cps@dol.wa.gov to request a sample notification letter.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties —RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

CPS RECORD FEES: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.

Submit the following documentation with your application:

- Washington State business – Attach a legible copy of your current business license
- Business outside Washington State – Attach a legible copy of one of the following:
 - Your current business license or
 - A letter signed by the owner or authorized representative indicating you are their agent. The letter must include your Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) or Federal Tax Identification Number (TIN)

IMPORTANT!

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY BEFORE POSTING THIS LICENSE

General Information

- Post this Business License in a visible location at your place of business.
- If you were issued a Business License previously, destroy the old one and post this one in its place.
- All endorsements should be renewed by the expiration date that appears on the front of this license to avoid any late fees that may apply.

If there is no expiration date, the endorsements remain active as long as you continue required reporting (see Endorsements).

- Login to eServices at business.wa.gov/BLS if you need to make changes to your business name, location, mailing address, telephone number, or business ownership.

Telephone: 1-800-451-7985

Endorsements

Although tax registration, unemployment, and industrial insurance endorsements appear on your Business License, the registration with the agencies that govern these endorsements is not complete until they have established an account for your business.

Each registering agency requires you to submit periodic reports. Each agency will send you the necessary reporting forms and instructions.

Corporations, limited liability companies, etc.

You must submit a Business License Application and file with the Corporations Division of the Secretary of State before you can legally operate as a corporation, limited liability company, or other business organization type that requires registration. If you have any questions, call (360) 725-0377.

For assistance or to request this document in an alternate format, visit <http://business.wa.gov/BLS> or call 1-800-451-7985. Teletype (TTY) users may use the Washington Relay Service by calling 711.

- Maintain a legible Subscriber Roster and complete all fields
- Record all subscribers
- Document the specific permissible use qualification for each subscriber
- Retain Subscriber Roster and notification letters sent by subscribers for the term of the Contract and for three (3) years from the date of disclosure or termination of the contract, whichever occurs first.

Your contract and/ or CPS access may be terminated if you do not maintain a complete and legible Subscriber Roster.

In the Subscriber's permissible use box, describe the DPPA defined permissible purpose for access to personal information contained in the records. For example, "information is used in the processing of insurance claims investigations." A vague answer, such as, "check who owns the vehicle," is unacceptable.

SATZFYD TITLE SERVICES:

Thank you for your payment on your City of Upland Business License.

This License Certificate does not permit any individual, business, or corporate entity, to conduct business activity which would otherwise be prohibited in the City. Payment of a business tax (required by the provisions of the City of Upland Municipal Code), its acceptance by the City, and the issuance of a certificate to any person, shall not authorize the holder thereof to carry on any business unless the holder has complied with all requirements of said Code and all other applicable laws. This certificate has been issued without verification that the holder is subject to or exempted from licensing by the state, county, or federal government; or any other government or government agency.

Keep this portion for your license separate in case you need a replacement for any lost, stolen, or destroyed license. A fee may be charged for a replacement or duplicate license. If you have questions concerning your business license, contact the Business Support Center via email at support@hdlgov.com or by telephone at (888) 602-0239.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners— RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4) (a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the State seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. Contact cps@dol.wa.gov to request a sample notification letter.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties —RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

CPS RECORD FEES: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.

Subscriber Roster (Data brokers/resellers applying for CPS must complete and return this section)Each data broker or reseller must:

- Maintain a legible Subscriber Roster and complete all fields
- Record all subscribers
- Document the specific permissible use qualification for each subscriber
- Retain Subscriber Roster and notification letters sent by subscribers for the term of the Contract and for three (3) years from the date of disclosure or termination of the contract, whichever occurs first.

Your contract and/ or CPS access may be terminated if you do not maintain a complete and legible Subscriber Roster.

In the Subscriber's permissible use box, describe the DPPA defined permissible purpose for access to personal information contained in the records. For example, "information is used in the processing of insurance claims investigations." A vague answer, such as, "check who owns the vehicle," is unacceptable.

Answer the following Provide a detailed explanation of your primary business activity (exactly what your business or agency does and how you will use the vehicle and vessel records). The Auto Data Direct, Inc. (ADD) business model is to serve as a contractor/agent to provide motor vehicle records only to allowable entities under the provisions of the Federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act, Title 18 U.S.C. § 2721 et seq. (DPPA) and state law for the sole purpose to complete business transactions, preventing fraudulent activities, and pursuing legal remedies. (See attachment for additional information)
Will you contact the owner for any purpose, provide the registration record information to an attorney or private investigator, or to any other persons or businesses? Use this space to describe how you will contact the owner or disclose the information or state that you will not disclose it and will not contact the owner. This is required information. ADD will not contact the owner. Registration information will be provided to only approved ADD Subscribers (financial institutions, insurance companies, towing companies and vehicle dealers) that are entitled to receive the data under state statutes and DPPA permissible uses. This registration information will be provided via the Internet in real-time, one record per inquiry. ADD will not provide record information to attorneys or private investigators.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners— RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4) (a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the State seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. Contact cps@dol.wa.gov to request a sample notification letter.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties —RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

CPS RECORD FEES: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.

Submit the following documentation with your application:

- Washington State business – Attach a legible copy of your current business license
- Business outside Washington State – Attach a legible copy of one of the following:
 - Your current business license or
 - A letter signed by the owner or authorized representative indicating you are their agent. The letter must include your Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) or Federal Tax Identification Number (TIN)
- Non-profit organization or corporation – Attach a legible copy of one of the following:
 - Your Articles of Incorporation, filed with the Secretary of State or
 - Your Tax Exempt Status, (501)(c)(3), from the Internal Revenue Service
- Attorney – Attach a legible copy of your current bar card, or proof of current/active bar status in your state.
- Private investigator – Attach a legible copy of your current private investigator license.

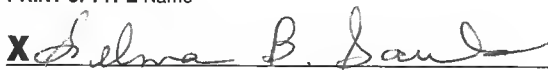

By signing or typing your name, you are certifying under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Attachment

Provide a detailed explanation of your primary business activity (exactly what your business or agency does and how you will use the vehicle and vessel records).

ADD Answer Continued:

ADD qualifies to provide vehicle information to its subscribers (i.e. insurance companies, financial institutions, vehicle dealers and towing companies) under the DPPA following provisions:

- 3 - For use in the normal course of business by a legitimate business or its agents, employees, or contractors, but only--
 - (a) to verify the accuracy of personal information submitted by the individual to the business or its agents, employees, or contractors; and
 - (b) if such information as so submitted is not correct or is no longer correct, to obtain the correct information, but only for the purposes of preventing fraud by pursuing legal remedies against, or recovering on a debt or security interest against, the individual.
- 6 - For use by any insurer or insurance support organization, or by a self-insured entity, or its agents, employees, or contractor, in connection with claims investigation activities, antifraud activities, rating or underwriting.
- 7 - For use in sending out notices to owners of towed or impounded vehicles and to complete Notification of Claims or lien compliance with statutorily mandated notification requirements.

ADD security protocols require that all subscribers must complete a DPPA Electronic User Application, an ADD Electronic Account Agreement and must review ADD's Terms of Use. Each subscriber's application is verified by checking with the Secretary of State, Division of Corporations, Department of Business & Professional Regulations and/or Department of Business Licenses from within the state the subscriber operates in.

Each ADD subscriber and each subscriber's user are assigned their own unique username and password to access the ADD system. If ADD determines that personal information has been breached and/or user ID password has been inappropriately used, ADD suspends the account and immediately notifies the subscriber, individual and jurisdiction.

Subscriber Roster (Data brokers/resellers applying for CPS must complete and return this section)Each data broker or reseller must:

- Maintain a legible Subscriber Roster and complete all fields
- Record all subscribers
- Document the specific permissible use qualification for each subscriber
- Retain Subscriber Roster and notification letters sent by subscribers for the term of the Contract and for three (3) years from the date of disclosure or termination of the contract, whichever occurs first.

Your contract and/ or CPS access may be terminated if you do not maintain a complete and legible Subscriber Roster.

In the Subscriber's permissible use box, describe the DPPA defined permissible purpose for access to personal information contained in the records. For example, "information is used in the processing of insurance claims investigations." A vague answer, such as, "check who owns the vehicle," is unacceptable.

We are committed to protecting personal information. Records and personal information are released in compliance with the federal Driver Privacy Protection Act of 1994 (DPPA), and Washington State laws. These laws restrict redisclosure of personal information obtained from vehicle and vessel records, and protect owners from unsolicited business contact. Authorized recipients may only redisclose information as permitted by law. There is no guarantee your request will be approved. See Authorities at the bottom of Page 2 of this application.

Answer the following Provide a detailed explanation of your primary business activity (exactly what your business or agency does and how you will use the vehicle and vessel records).  RECORDS WILL BE USED FOR PROCESS SERVICE AND TO ESTABLISH IDENTITY IN INSURANCE CLAIMS AND FRAUD INVESTIGATIONS.
Will you contact the owner for any purpose, provide the registration record information to an attorney or private investigator, or to any other persons or businesses? Use this space to describe how you will contact the owner or disclose the information or state that you will not disclose it and will not contact the owner. This is required information.  NO

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners— RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4)(a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the State seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. Contact cps@dol.wa.gov to request a sample notification letter.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties —RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

CPS RECORD FEES: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.

Subscriber Roster (Data brokers/resellers applying for CPS must complete and return this section)Each data broker or reseller must:

- Maintain a legible Subscriber Roster and complete all fields
- Record all subscribers
- Document the specific permissible use qualification for each subscriber
- Retain Subscriber Roster and notification letters sent by subscribers for the term of the Contract and for three (3) years from the date of disclosure or termination of the contract, whichever occurs first.

Your contract and/ or CPS access may be terminated if you do not maintain a complete and legible Subscriber Roster.

In the Subscriber's permissible use box, describe the DPPA defined permissible purpose for access to personal information contained in the records. For example, "information is used in the processing of insurance claims investigations." A vague answer, such as, "check who owns the vehicle," is unacceptable.
